Prepositions

Part 1: Prepositions go before a noun (and determiner).

1. She is in a meeting.
2. They drove to the store.
3. I live by a lake.
4. We have class at eight.

Part 2: Prepositions show the location of an object.

1. The cat is by the door.
2. There is snow on the mountain.
3. There is a running track around the soccer field.
4. My shoes are under the bed.

Part 3: Prepositions can also be adverbs after a verb. We call these phrasal verbs. The meaning can be different than the meaning of the preposition.

1. I woke up late.
2. Please turn on the radio.
3. Don't give up.
4. Please take off your shoes in the house.

Part 4: Prepositions are harder to hear in spoken English because they are reduced and often blend with the word before it.

He's in a meeting

Hez-zin-na meeting.

She's out of the room at the moment

Sheez-zout-dov the room-mat the moment.
