

Vocabulary

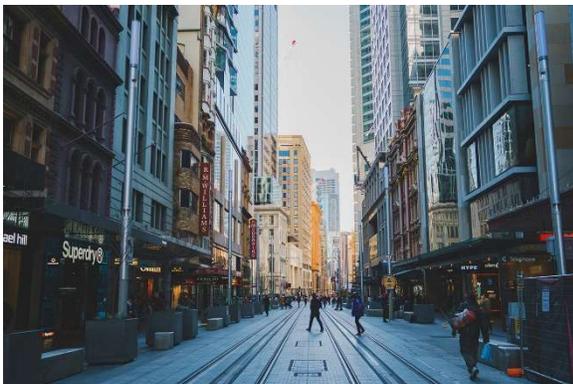

Exercise

Gym

Walk – Race – Run

Street

Ride the Bike

Outside the House

Inside the House

Elisabeth / USA

Do you exercise in winter?

Hello, my name is Elisabeth. I am from America. And my question is, do you exercise in winter?

Yes, I exercise in winter. I like to walk my dog. I walk my dog to the park. I walk two hours a day. I do not belong to a gym. I like to exercise by myself. I lift weights at my house. I ride my bike. It is cold outside, but I like to exercise inside. I run outside. I run with my friend on the street. I run twice a week. I like to race, so I need to practice. Yes, I like to exercise in winter. It is not as hot as summer.

My question for you is, do you exercise in winter?

Quiz

Answer the following questions about the interview.

1) For how many hours does she walk?

- a) One
- b) Two

2) Where does she lift weights?

- a) At home
- b) At a gym

3) Where does she run?

- a) Inside
- b) On the street

What is the correct word? Listen to the audio to hear the answer!

Hello, my ___ is Elisabeth. I ___ from America. And my question is, do you exercise ___ winter?

Yes, I exercise in winter. I like ___ walk my dog. I walk my dog ___ the park. I walk two hours ___ day. I do not belong ___ a gym. I like to exercise ___ myself. I lift weights at ___ house. I ___ my bike. It ___ cold outside, but I like ___ exercise inside. I run outside. I run with my friend ___ the street. I run twice ___ week. I like ___ race, so I need ___ practice. Yes, I like ___ exercise ___ winter. It ___ not as hot ___ summer.

My question for you is, do you exercise in winter?

Describe the Pictures

Corporate Vocabulary

To understand [Verb]

To know the meaning of something.

Ex: “After asking for the explanation a few times, I finally understand the concept.”

To misunderstand [Verb]

To not understand something correctly.

Ex: “They misunderstood the movie plot and were confused.”