

Vocabulary

broil

They have fried chicken and broiled chicken.

Broiled food is cooked by direct heat. Notice the following:

1. I love to eat broiled fish.
2. Broiled food is usually healthy.

and so on

They have fried chicken, baked chicken, broiled chicken, and so on.

And so on means et cetera or more like this. Notice the following:

1. You sell apples, oranges, bananas and so on.
2. They serve soups, salads, pastas and so on.

stir-fry

And they also have some stir-fry.

Stir-fry is food cooked quickly in a pan (often a wok) at high heat. Notice the following:

1. I love to eat chinese stir-fry.
2. Stir-fry is tasty but often not healthy.

tablecloth

Do they have tablecloths?

A tablecloth is a cover for a table. Notice the following:

1. Nice restaurants often have white tablecloths.
2. When we have guests for dinner, my mom uses a tablecloth.

sounds great

Okay, sounds great.

The phrase sounds great means you agree with an idea or suggestion. Notice the following:

- Let's meet tomorrow for lunch.
- Sounds great!

vegetarian

let's go for vegetarian.

A vegetarian is a person who does not eat meat. Notice the following:

1. She is vegetarian but eats dairy products.
2. I tried to be vegetarian but I missed eating fish.

Vocabulary Quiz

broil • so on • tablecloth
stir-fry • sounds great • vegetarian

1. I like to ___ noodles and veggies.
2. You have shirts, pants, ties and ___.
3. Your idea ___.
4. She is a ___ so she eats lots of salad.
5. I spilled wine on the ___.
6. I love to ___ chicken.

You know a good place?

Shirley is hungry and wants to eat lunch so she asks Josh for some ideas about where they can eat.

Shirley: Josh, I'm really hungry now. Do you know a good restaurant we could go to?

Josh: Yes, there's a really great chicken restaurant near my house.

Shirley: Chicken?

Josh: Yeah, they have lots of different types of chicken. They have fried chicken, baked chicken, broiled chicken, and so on.

Shirley: Hmm, chicken. You know, I don't really like chicken that much. Do you know about somewhere else, somewhere that doesn't have chicken or beef?

Josh: Yes, there's a vegetarian restaurant near my house, too. But it's in the opposite direction.

Shirley: Great. Okay, what kind of food do they have?

Josh: They have lots of salads, fresh salads. And they also have some stirfry.

Shirley: Okay, and what's the restaurant like?

Josh: The restaurant is really nice. It's pretty small, and there's not a lot people usually.

Shirley: Okay. Is it light or dark inside the restaurant?

Josh: It's a little bit dark but the food is really good.

Shirley: Okay. What about the tables? Do they have tablecloths or do they not have tablecloths?

Josh: There's no tablecloths and the tables are a little bit low.

Shirley: What about the price of the food? Is it expensive or is it cheap?

Josh: It's very cheap.

Shirley: Hmm, that's good.

Josh: Yeah. For example, you can buy a salad for only 5 dollars.

Shirley: Wow. That is cheap.

Josh: It is.

Shirley: Okay. What about a soup?

Josh: A soup is usually 6 dollars but they're really good.

Shirley: Okay. Well, I have my car today, so is there parking at the restaurant?

Josh: There's some parking but there's actually a lot nearby.

Shirley: Okay, so no problem to park my car.

Josh: It's no problem.

Shirley: Great. Then, let's go for vegetarian.

Josh: Okay, sounds great.

Quiz

Answer these questions about the interview.

1) You can get _____ chicken.

- a) baked
- b) fried
- c) minced
- d) broiled

2) She does not want to eat _____ .

- a) chicken
- b) beef
- c) veggies

3) He says the restaurant is _____ .

- a) crowded
- b) dark
- c) small

4) It does not have _____ .

- a) tables
- b) chairs
- c) tablecloths

5) What is more expensive?

- a) the salad
- b) broiled chicken
- c) the soup

Corporate Vocabulary

Equity

Ownership value.

“My parents have lots of equity in their house.”

“My parents have a substantial equity stake in their primary residence.”

Invoice

A bill.

“The value of the invoice is CAD$ 2590.”

“The total invoice value is CAD$ 2590, excluding taxes.”